

Marriage Certificate of Mr. Bernard Latapie, merchant, born in Maubourget (Lot-et-Garonne) on 11/4/1839, residing in Marseille, at No. 5 Rue Venture, adult son of the late Jean Latapie and of Mrs. Jeanne Cherissan, his wife, residing in the said Maubourget, present here and consenting to the marriage, on the one hand, and of Miss Rosine Stucki, schoolteacher, born in Oberdorf (Switzerland) on 04/12/1849, residing in Marseille, at No. 5 Rue Venture, adult daughter of the late Henri Stucki and of Mrs. Barbe Hoetzel, his wife, residing in the said Oberdorf, present here and consenting to the marriage, on the other hand.

The preliminary formalities include the publication of the marriage, made at this Town Hall on the Sundays of April 26 and May 3 last, at noon.

All the documents, initialed according to the law and which will remain attached to this register, were read aloud, as well as Chapter Six of Title Five of the Napoleonic Code concerning the respective rights and duties of spouses.

The said spouses, present, declared that they take each other in marriage—Miss Rosine Stucki and Mr. Bernard Latapie.

Thereupon, we, Octave Moreau, Deputy Mayor of Marseille, delegated to perform the duties of Civil Registrar, after having received from the spouses and the parties present authorizing the marriage, upon our inquiry, the declaration that they mutually take each other as husband and wife, have pronounced, IN THE NAME OF THE LAW, that the said spouses are united in marriage, in the presence of:

- Mr. Hyppolite Boyer, employee, aged thirty-six, residing in Marseille, at No. 5 Rue Venture
- Mr. Jean Boyer, employee, aged thirty, residing in Marseille, at No. 5 Rue Venture
- (Jean Boyer is listed multiple times, likely due to clerical repetition)
